The Purpose of My Life Is:

To presence, celebrate and embody the Spirit of Renaissance

The values that are at the heart of who I am are:

1. Love - Honoring the unique integrity and wholeness in everything.
2. Awe - Standing in awe of that which cannot be spoken.
3. Mastery - Sculpting life as art through rigorous truthfulness, ruthless compassion, and play.
4. Boldness - Risking ideas, creations, ways of being and doing that have never been tried before.
5. Passion - Living, healing, creating, and loving with nothing in reserve and without attachment.

I can be counted on:

1. To sustain the gaze on the darkest horrors and the blazing rapture of the human soul, its shining light in the darkness,
2. To stay awake, no matter what.
3. To transform whatever stands in the way of the fulfillment of this purpose.
4. To be lover, servant and co-creator with the Divine.
5. To ardently safeguard and defend the inviolate wholeness of Life Itself.
